

"Scheuer gets to the heart of the matter."
—NY Times

MAKING GOOD THINGS OUT OF BAD THINGS BENJAMIN SCHEUER

Benjamin Scheuer, Drama Desk Award-winning creator of THE LION, and co-creator of the book Between Two Spaces, talks about "Making good things out of bad things" in an intimate evening of stories, songs and videos.

WHEN

Wednesday, February 8, 2017
6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

WHERE

The Pointe at CSU-Long Beach

1250 Bellflower Blvd. | Long Beach, CA 90840
The Pointe is in the Pyramid, located under the yellow steps.

TICKETS

www.csulb.edu/thelion

Scheuer has been a writer-in-residence at Goodspeed Musicals, The Williamstown Theatre Festival, Weston Playhouse, and Johnny Mercer Songwriting Workshop.

Photo Credit: Christine Goodwin. Many thanks to the team at The Geffen where THE LION is playing January 4 - February 19, 2017. www.geffenplayhouse.org

Scheuer is a singer/songwriter/guitarist and a survivor of stage four Hodgkin lymphoma. He has toured with Mary Chapin Carpenter and performed around the world from Royal Albert Hall in London to Lincoln Center in New York.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

TICKETS

FREE —CSULB/CSUF Students, Faculty and Staff

FREE —Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Patients and Families

$10 —General Community Member

CSULB Guest Parking is $7-

STORIES & SONG

6:30 p.m. Presentation & Audience Q & A

Door Prize Drawing: Win Two tickets to see THE LION at The Geffen Playhouse.

BOOK SIGNING

BETWEEN TWO SPACES

7:30 p.m. Dessert & Coffee

Meet & Greet with Benjamin Scheuer

Questions: Contact Dr. Joy Goebel at 562-985-1635 or e-mail joy.goebel@csulb.edu

Institute for Palliative Care
AT CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY LONG BEACH

