EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT PALLIATIVE CARE
IN SAN FRANCISCO

What is palliative care?
Who does it serve?
How is it accessed?
How is it different from hospice or end-of-life care?

Explore the questions people living with life-threatening or chronic illnesses face when hoping to maintain quality of life, or when starting to prepare for end of life. In this panel presentation, hear the perspectives from local experts in the fields of Palliative and End-of-life Care. For healthcare professionals, students in all healthcare related fields, and anyone who wants more understanding about Palliative Care, this panel presentation will answer those questions and more.

MODERATOR: Brian de Vries, Ph.D., Interim Faculty Director at the Institute for Palliative Care at San Francisco State University

PANELISTS:

BJ Miller, M.D., Palliative Care Physician, UCSF; Sr Director & Advocate, Zen Hospice Project
Anne Hughes, PhD, ACHPN, Advanced Practice Nurse, Palliative Care, Pain Management and Ethics, Laguna Honda Hospital and Rehabilitation Center / San Francisco Dept. of Public Health
Daphne Stuart, LCSW, Symptom Management Service and Inpatient Palliative Care Social Worker, UCSF Mission Bay
Redwing Keyssar, RN, Director, Palliative Care Program, Jewish Family and Children’s Services
Rabbi Eric Weiss, CEO/President, Bay Area Jewish Healing Center

Thursday, March 3, 2016 from 7 pm to 8:30 pm
San Francisco State University LIBRARY 121

Please RSVP by Feb. 29 to Brian de Vries bdevries@sfsu.edu
Seating is limited • Light refreshments will be provided

Sponsored by the CSU Institute for Palliative Care at SFSU and the San Francisco Palliative Care Committee, a committee of the San Francisco Long Term Care Coordinating Council.

https://www.sfdph.org/dph/comupg/knowlcol/palliative