$25,000 in Scholarships Available for Professionals

To celebrate National Hospice and Palliative Care Month in November, the California State University Institute for Palliative Care is awarding $25,000 in scholarships for palliative care education for San Diego County nurses, social workers, and other working professionals.

Donald and Darlene Marcos Shiley Scholarships are made available to equip working healthcare professionals and providers with palliative care skills aimed at improving quality of life for seriously ill patients and their families.

The awards cover the full cost of tuition for an Institute course. Registration must be completed by June 30, 2018. To be eligible, applicants must be health care professionals serving communities in San Diego County, and must provide a signed letter of support from their manager.

More information can be found at <https://csupalliativecare.org/scholarship/>

A quote from one of our previous scholarship recipients:

"I feel that because of this course, I will be able to conduct much more meaningful assessments, contribute to ongoing development in program development and also assessment tool creation. I can't thank you enough for this opportunity. I feel truly blessed to have been selected for this scholarship award." - Post-Master of Social Work Graduate
