Sept. 28 - 29, 2017

Travel and Accommodations

Getting to the Symposium

The Symposium is being held at the California State University San Marcos \(CSUSM\) campus, in northern San Diego County. The address is 333 S. Twin Oaks Valley Road, San Marcos, CA 92096.

The campus can be accessed through major freeways 15 or 5 to Highway 78. Exit from 78 onto the Twin Oaks Valley Road exit, then south on Twin Oaks Valley Road to Craven Drive, left into campus.

The University Student Union \(USU\) building will house registration, all plenary sessions, meals and the reception with poster displays. Walk to the USU on the ground level from the parking lot or structure and go up to the 2nd floor lobby for registration and check-in.

Breakout sessions will be held in the USU. For a campus map, click here. Wifi will be available to access handouts, they will not be printed in respect for the environment.

Parking on Campus

Parking is provided on campus in Lot N and Parking Structure 1. Roads coming into the campus will have directional signage to help you find them, they are side by side. A machine for purchasing parking permits is in Lot N and takes cash or debit/credit card, a one day permit is $9. Display the permit on your vehicle dash board.

CSU system-wide permits are honored in non-restricted spaces in Lot N and Parking Structure 1. Parking ticketing and towing is in effect for CSU-permitted vehicles parked in restricted areas and non-permitted vehicles.
