

ADVANCING PALLIATIVE CARE LEADING INTO THE FUTURE

MULTIDISCIPLINARY PROGRAM FOR EDUCATORS

The National Symposium for Academic Palliative Care Education and Research gathers educators and researchers from across the U.S. for two days of sharing and collaborating. For full details visit csupalliativecare.org/symposium

DANIEL FRIEDLAND, MD, WILL LAUNCH THE EVENT

An expert on the science and practice of personal leadership and resiliency, Daniel Friedland, MD, will share ways to navigate stress, clarify vision and purpose, and thrive so you can positively impact your world!

Dr. Friedland's career in medicine led him to starting his own company, and authoring Leading Well from Within: A Neuroscience and Mindfulness-Based Framework for Conscious Leadership.

A JOURNEY OF LEADERSHIP BY CHRISTINE RITCHIE, MD, MSPH

A nationally recognized palliative care leader, Christine Ritchie, MD, MSPH, FACP, FAAHPM, will share the challenges and obstacles she has faced in her work, and how she has overcome them to advance the field and achieve personal balance and meaning.

Dr. Ritchie is the Harris Fishbon Distinguished Professor in Clinical Translational Research and Aging in the Division of Geriatrics, Department of Medicine at the University of California San Francisco. A geriatrician and palliative care physician and researcher, she holds leadership roles in palliative care organizations and initiatives across the country. She is an inaugural member of the Palliative Care Research Collaborative, a board member of the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, and an Associate Editor for the Journal of Palliative Medicine.
